English, August (Upamanyu Chatterjee) - book review

— Upamanyu Chatterjee, quote from English, August: An Indian Story "No one reveals himself more completely to others than to himself - that is, if he reveals himself at all." "You feel even more naked and alone, he said silently, when you reveal yourself, a gratuitous act, for the strength and comfort you look for, any of those last illusions of consolations, can finally be only within you."
