Don Petcher

Authors Tim Morris and Don Petcher, a biologist and a physicist respectively, are professors at Covenant College. At the outset of Science and Grace, they state their commitment to "[refer] directly to Scripture" rather than making their "confessional heritage" their "primary reference" (p. xii).

They generally fulfill

this commitment,
though at times they
find themselves talking
in exclusively
Reformed terms.

Don Petcher, professor of physics at Covenant College (Lookout Mountain, Georgia) and co-author with Tim Morris of Science & Grace: God's Reign in the Natural Sciences (Crossway, 2006), makes the case that science is a wonderful enterprise for a scientist in the Calvinist tradition.
