"Through the Smoke" is the very first book by Brenda Novak I've ever read and I am quite certain this will not be my last read from her. This wonderful story struck me well in so many ways for its dark tone, Gothic texture, romantic relationship between the two leads, and overarching mystery/suspenseful elements peppered through the narrative.

What better way to get both than a Brenda Novak Historical Romance! I really enjoyed the obvious research that went into this book, weaving in history with this love story. I particularly enjoyed her take on working conditions in coal mines in the 1830's and how fragile life is when faced with job loss in those times.
